

Inspirational Assembly

They face challenges with courage and grace.
An inspiration to others in every case.
Holmer Academy, a stage where they shine.
A pupil whose brilliance forever aligns.

Respect and kindness, pillars they uphold,
In the heart of the Academy, where stories unfold.
A mentor to peers, a guide to the lost,
In the classroom's symphony, they are the conductor, the best.

In the journey of education, they lead,
A role model, a friend, in thought and deed.
So, let their story be a song to sing,
Of an inspirational pupil in Holmer's welcoming wing.

In the halls of Holmer Academy,
a pupil stands, A beacon of inspiration,
with purpose in their hands.
In the tapestry of learning, they weave,
A spirit vibrant, determined to achieve.

With curiosity as their compass, they explore,
The corridors of knowledge, opening every door.
In classrooms, like gardens, they plant seeds,
Of wisdom and wonder, fulfilling their needs.
