

What should I already know?	Vocabulary
- That animation is a sequence of drawings or photographs - That animated movement is related to a sequence of images. - You need to plan animation. - The need to work consistently and carefully. - That you must review and improve animation. - That there is a need to evaluate the impact of adding other media to an animation. - That digital images can be changed. - To change the composition of an image. - Describe how images can be changed for different uses. - Make good choices when selecting different tools. - Recognise that not all images are real.	Capturing	Recording an image or movement using a relative app.
	Editing	Changing for a greater impact and communicating to the audience.
	Manipulating	Changing in a variety of ways to create an inspiring and dramatic film which will hold the audience's attention
What will I know by the end of the unit?	Storyboard	The planning of a video ready to capture and take images and pictures – still and moving.
- I can explain that video is a visual media format. - I can identify features of videos - I can compare features in different videos - I can identify and find features on a digital video recording device. - I can experiment with different camera angles. - I can make use of a microphone. - I can suggest filming techniques for a given purpose. - I can capture video using a range of filming techniques. - I can review how effective my video is. - I can outline the scenes of my video - I can decide which filming techniques I will use. - I can create and save video content. - I can store, retrieve, and export my recording to a computer. - I can explain how to improve a video by reshooting and editing.	Camera angles	Close shot, mid shot, long shot, dutch angle and different perspectives.
	scenes	Video is a sequence of images and pictures.
	Relevant Reads

- I can select the correct tools to make edits to my video.
- I can make edits to my video and improve the final outcome.
- I can recognise that my choices when making a video will impact the quality of the final outcome.
- I can evaluate my video and share my opinions.

1. Which of these features are the most important when creating a video?

- a) A clear sequence – beginning, middle and end.
- b) Clear audio
- c) Different camera angles
- d) The same camera angle

2. Is it important to follow a detailed storyboard?
Explain your answer.

3. Is it important to edit a video? Explain your answer.